EU REQUESTS:

“ADDRESS THE ISSUE OF POLITICAL POLARIZATION,
THROUGH ENSURING COOPERATION ACROSS POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE SPIRIT OF THE APRIL 19 AGREEMENT”

PRIORITY N1
DE-POLARIZATION

EXPECTATIONS

- » Reduce the electoral threshold to 2% for 2024 elections
- » End politically motivated cases against the critical media and political opponents
- » Release of Nika Gvaramia, director of Mtavari TV
- » Transfer of ex-President Saakashvili for treatment to a hospital abroad
- » Reduction of the bellicose rhetoric from the GD and the opposition
- » The ruling party to stop boycotting critical media channels and to engage in the TV debates
- » Power-sharing in the Parliament in accordance with the Charles Michel April 19, 2021 agreement (opposition to chair several parliamentary committees)
- » Consensus on the parliamentary appointments where a high quorum is needed (Ombudsperson, Prosecutor General, Head of CEC)
- » Reduce the hostile rhetoric against the civil society and independent media
- » Refrain from the initiation and discussions on the legislation impeding activities of CSOs and independent media

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✗ Political polarization has increased between the Government and opposition, Government and media, Government and Civil society
- ✗ Georgian Dream says that this condition needs to be implemented by the opposition, not by the Government
- ✗ Attacks against political opponents, critical media and CSOs are more intensive
- ✗ Georgian Dream stepped up anti-Western rhetoric, blames the West, opposition, CSOs and critical media for wanting to drag Georgia into the war with Russia
- ✗ Everyone criticizing the Georgian Dream is called - “the war party”
- ✗ Opposition often calls the Georgian Dream – “Russian stooges” and “traitors”
- ✗ The Court denied to postpone the sentence of Mikheil Saakashvili in order to transfer him abroad for medical treatment
- ✗ Adoption of the law on „Transparency of Foreign Influence“ deepened the polarization
- ✗ No power-sharing arrangements in the Parliament, as agreed in the Charles Michel agreement
- ✗ Electoral threshold hasn't been reduced to 2%, as agreed in Charles Michel April 19, 2021 agreement
- ✗ Not all opposition parties participate in the working groups set up to elaborate laws for implementing the 12 priorities
- ✗ Georgian Dream blames the EU for fostering polarization and radicalization and declares that the purpose of the adoption of the foreign influence law, was depolarization. GD denies the role of Charles Michel April 19, 2021 agreement in the process of depolarization

CHALLENGES

- ! No reforms are implemented on power-sharing and electoral threshold
- ! Cases of Saakashvili and Gvaramia remain unaddressed
- ! Politicized justice continues
- ! The Government and opposition continue blaming each other for not wanting to de-polarize
- ! Political processes remain highly polarized in the run-up to the 2024 elections
- ! No scaling down of the polarizing rhetoric
- ! No political will for consensus on the parliamentary appointments where a high quorum is needed
- ! Adoption of legislation preventing activities of CSOs and media will deepen the polarization
- ! The spirit of the April 19 agreement has not been taken into account

PARTIALLY FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“GUARANTEE THE FULL FUNCTIONING OF ALL STATE INSTITUTIONS, STRENGTHENING THEIR INDEPENDENT AND EFFECTIVE ACCOUNTABILITY AS WELL AS THEIR DEMOCRATIC OVERSIGHT FUNCTIONS; FURTHER IMPROVE THE ELECTORAL FRAMEWORK, ADDRESSING ALL SHORTCOMINGS IDENTIFIED BY OSCE/ODIHR AND THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE/VENICE COMMISSION IN THESE PROCESSES”

EXPECTATIONS

- » Adopt constitutional amendments to the electoral system, reducing the barrier to 2%
- » Adopt amendments to the Election Code per Charles Michel April 19, 2021 agreement
- » Elect CEC Chairperson and professional members by 2/3 majority and include the anti-deadlock mechanism
- » Limit the election of the temporary CEC chair so that before the 2024 elections, the elected chairperson heads the CEC
- » Change the electoral code to minimize electoral fraud (chain voting), fraud during counting, vote-buying and pre-election pressure on political opponents
- » Ensure a higher level of independence and accountability of state institutions
- » Strengthen democratic parliamentary oversight on the state institutions, including by changing the rules of procedures
- » Implement the OSCE/ODIHR and the Council of Europe/Venice Commission recommendations

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✓ Georgian Dream initiated and adopted the changes to the rules of procedures regarding democratic oversight in the Parliament
 - The number of interpellations increased from 4 to 8
 - Minister will be obliged to present a written report 5 days before Minister's hour
 - The Government to appear more promptly in the Parliament per MPs' request
 - The deadline for answering MP's question will be reduced from 15 to 10 days
 - The committee's thematic inquiries can be established with a reduced majority - by the majority of MPs present in a committee instead of the majority of all MPs
 - A report of the State Security Service of Georgia can be presented before the Parliament only by its Head instead of the Deputy Head
- ✓ The ruling party adopted the changes to the electoral code covering the electronic counting system of the ballots, to be installed in 90% of the polling stations. In the rest of the stations the ballots will be digitalized and results will be recounted based on a random principle
- ✓ Some of the Venice Commission recommendations have been incorporated in the draft law. Changes are related to the party financing, administrative resources, election administration, complaints, recounts and inking
- ⌚ Parliament could not elect a CEC chairperson
- ✗ GD linked reducing the electoral threshold to 2% with the receipt of the candidate status
- ✗ The working group created by the Procedural Issues and Rules Committee didn't discuss the proposals concerning the enhancement of parliamentary oversight of the security sector
- ✓ The Government of Georgia elaborated in February 2021 the Reform Strategy of Public Administration and its Action Plan 2023-24, which covers decentralization, public service development, management of public finances, digital governance and national anti-corruption measures

- ! The electoral barrier remains unchanged at 5%, and no electoral blocs are allowed, putting opposition parties in a disadvantageous position for the 2024 elections
- ! According to the joint assessment of the OSCE/ODIHR and the Venice Commission, the changes in the electoral law don't cover the following important issues:
 - Delimitation of the electoral districts;
 - Misuse of administrative resources during the election campaign;
 - High limits for electoral donations, which impacts an equal election environment
 - Further regulation of the financing of election campaigns;
 - Further improvement of regulations concerning media campaigns;
 - Recounting and annulment of votes;
 - Preventive measures against intimidation of voters
- ! According to the Report of ISFED, GYLA and TI Georgia, which is based on opinions of the Venice Commission and OSCE/ODIHR there is still a need of changes in the electoral legislation, including regarding the composition of the central election commission, extending the deadlines for submission and consideration of complaints and appeals, improvement of criteria for conducting recounts and annulments etc
- ! No concrete mechanisms are adopted which prevent chain voting (for instance, bar-coded bulletins)
- ! Central Election Commission Chairperson is not appointed through the 2/3 of the Parliament but remains a temporarily appointed person
- ! According to the CSOs, accountability of the Government to the Parliament still remains low
- ! According to the opposition and the NGOs, amendments to the Rules of Procedure do not ensure effective accountability of state institutions
- ! The oversight instruments for opposition are limited and, in individual cases, depend on the consent of the parliamentary majority
- ! Procedure of Q&A during the interpellation hasn't been changed

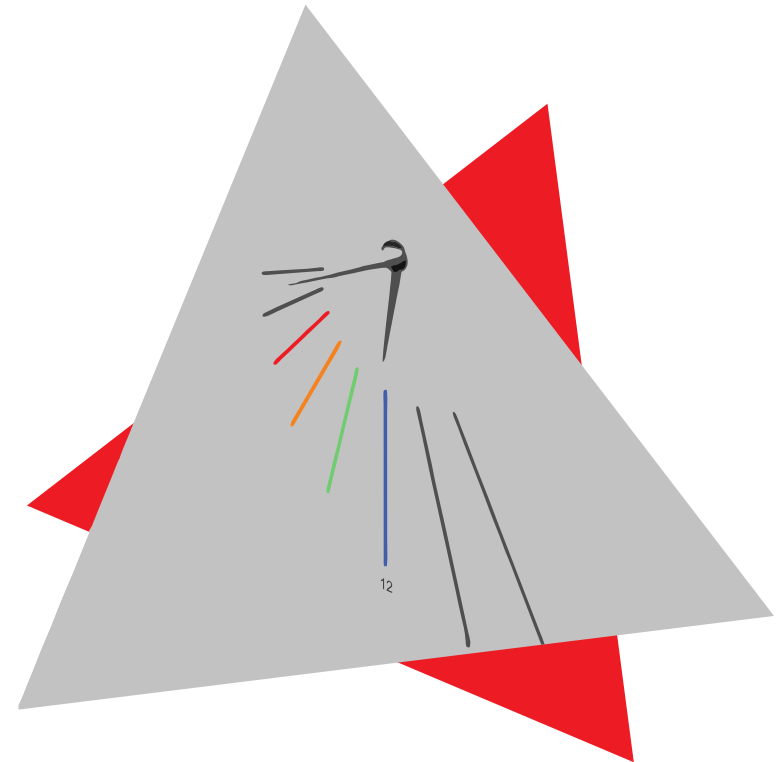

TO BE FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“ADOPT AND IMPLEMENT A TRANSPARENT AND EFFECTIVE JUDICIAL REFORM STRATEGY AND ACTION PLAN POST-2021 BASED ON A BROAD, INCLUSIVE AND CROSS-PARTY CONSULTATION PROCESS; ENSURE A JUDICIARY THAT IS FULLY AND TRULY INDEPENDENT, ACCOUNTABLE AND IMPARTIAL ALONG THE ENTIRE JUDICIAL INSTITUTIONAL CHAIN, ALSO TO SAFEGUARD THE SEPARATION OF POWERS; NOTABLY ENSURE THE PROPER FUNCTIONING AND INTEGRITY OF ALL JUDICIAL AND PROSECUTORIAL INSTITUTIONS, IN PARTICULAR THE SUPREME COURT AND ADDRESS ANY SHORTCOMINGS IDENTIFIED INCLUDING THE NOMINATION OF JUDGES AT ALL LEVELS AND OF THE PROSECUTOR-GENERAL; UNDERTAKE A THOROUGH REFORM OF THE HIGH COUNCIL OF JUSTICE AND APPOINT THE HIGH COUNCIL'S REMAINING MEMBERS. ALL THESE MEASURES NEED TO BE FULLY IN LINE WITH EUROPEAN STANDARDS AND THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE VENICE COMMISSION”

EXPECTATIONS

- » Adoption of the transparent and effective judicial reform Strategy and Action Plan
- » Ensure a broad, inclusive and cross-party consultation process for the judiciary reform
- » Increase the institutional and individual independence of the judiciary and judges by decreasing the political influence of the ruling party on the courts through the so-called “clan”
- » Comprehensive reform of the High Council of Judges, by reducing judicial corporatism, limiting of extensive powers of High Council of Judges and strengthening pluralism in the decision-making process
- » Change the criteria and appointment process of the Supreme Court candidates, introduce effective appeal mechanisms
- » Election of five members in the High Council of Justice
- » Change the procedure for appointing a Prosecutor General

STATE OF PLAY:

- ⌚ Georgian Dream has sent the draft amendments to the organic law on common courts to the Venice Commission and OSCE/ODIHR
- ⌚ Venice Commission prepared its opinion in the context of 12 priorities defined by the EU;
- ✗ According to the Venice Commission the draft law doesn't ensure a holistic judicial reform, including the High Council of Judges
- ✗ Venice Commission reiterates that its previous recommendations, such as corporatism and self-interests in the High Council of Justice, second and transfer of the judges, restriction of the grounds for disciplinary liability and other guarantees for the independence of judges haven't been taken into account
- ✗ The draft law has been criticized by every parliamentary opposition party, which argue that GD is not willing to give up its control of the judiciary and merely passes technical changes
- ✗ NGOs claim that the GD has not taken into account most of their recommendations
- ✓ The procedure of the appointment of the Prosecutor General has been changed by consensus between the GD and the main opposition parties
- ✗ No consensus was reached on the appointment of the five lay members of the High Council of Justice, and the vote was postponed

CHALLENGES

- ! Amendments presented by the Parliament don't cover the reform of the High Council of Justice,
- ! The Parliament couldn't ensure broad involvement in the elaboration process of the Strategy and Action Plan on the judicial reform, which hinders the implementation of the EU requirement regarding inclusiveness and cross-party consultation
- ! Venice Commission considers that amendment does not provide a holistic reform of the judiciary, including of the High Council of Justice
- ! Opposition and the NGOs are criticizing the GD-initiated legislative amendments on judicial reform issues
- ! Two judges, alleged leaders of the influential group (dubbed as “clan”), have been appointed in the High Council of Justice before the reform of the appointment procedure, which leaves the fulfilment of this conditionality under question
- ! GD-suggested changes fall short of establishing a truly independent, accountable and impartial judiciary
Amendments initiated by the GD are not sufficient for the establishment of an independent, accountable and impartial Judiciary, as proved by the recent Opinion of the Venice Commission
- ! The 5 lay members of the High Council of Justice are still not elected
- ! Despite the approval of the high quorum appointment procedure for the Prosecutor General, the ruling party declared only to use the deadlock-breaking mechanism and appoint the Prosecutor General for one-year terms eight times in a row
- ! Constitutional amendment related to the high quorum appointment for the Prosecutor General was approved at the first hearing
- ! The recommendation to implement the procedure of double 2/3 majority voting in the High Council of Justice has not been taken into account

PARTIALLY FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“STRENGTHEN THE INDEPENDENCE OF ITS ANTI-CORRUPTION AGENCY BRINGING TOGETHER ALL KEY ANTI-CORRUPTION FUNCTIONS, IN PARTICULAR TO RIGOROUSLY ADDRESS HIGH-LEVEL CORRUPTION CASES; EQUIP THE NEW SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SERVICE AND PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION SERVICE WITH RESOURCES COMMENSURATE TO THEIR MANDATES AND ENSURE THEIR INSTITUTIONAL INDEPENDENCE”

PRIORITY N4:
ANTI-CORRUPTION MEASURES

EXPECTATIONS

- » Create a single anti-corruption agency that will be independent of political control, combining the roles of the existing bodies and equipped with necessary functions and capabilities
- » Elaborate of the new National Anti-Corruption Strategy and relevant Action Plan
- » Ensure independence and strengthen the capacity of the two new bodies formed by the dissolution of the State Inspector's Service - Special Investigation Service and Personal Data Protection Service

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✓ GD initiated the creation of the Anti-Corruption Bureau and adopted relevant legal changes in the Parliament with the three hearings
 - ✓ Anti-corruption Bureau was created, and the Head of the Bureau was appointed by the Prime Minister based on competition
 - ✓ Anti-corruption Bureau will be tasked with overseeing the implementation of the policy and strategy documents concerning the fight against corruption, coordinating activities of the relevant state bodies, monitoring of asset declarations of high public officials, improvement of the protection of whistleblowers, monitoring of the party financing
 - ✓ Anti-corruption Bureau will be accountable to the Parliament and interdepartmental anti-corruption council
 - ✗ GD ignored the recommendation to equip the Anti-Corruption Bureau with the investigative functions
 - ✗ Possibility to participate in the working process of the working group was not provided for all interested CSOs
 - ✓ The powers of the Special Investigation Service will increase as the list of offences that the service can investigate is broadened. The breach of any right covered by the ECHR convention will be investigated by the Special Investigation Service instead of the office of the Prosecutor General
 - ✓ Social guarantees of the employees of the Personal Data Protection Service will be expanded

CHALLENGES

- ! Lack of democratic accountability of the Anti-Corruption Bureau
- ! Anti-corruption Bureau does not have investigative functions
- ! Investigation of corruption crimes is still the competence of different investigative bodies, which doesn't correspond to the requirement to unite various essential anti-corruption functions under a single authority;
- ! Anti-corruption agency operates still under the State Security Service
- ! A new National Anti-Corruption Strategy and relevant Action Plan have not been elaborated

TO BE FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“TO IMPLEMENT THE COMMITMENT TO “DE-OLIGARCHIZATION” BY ELIMINATING THE EXCESSIVE INFLUENCE OF VESTED INTERESTS IN ECONOMIC, POLITICAL, AND PUBLIC LIFE”

PRIORITY N5:
DE-OLIGARCHIZATION

EXPECTATIONS

- » NGOs and opposition parties believe that de-oligarchization could be achieved by implementing other 11 conditions

Note: EU never requested adoption of the law on de-oligarchization

STATE OF PLAY:

- ⌚ Law on de-oligarchization was adopted with two hearings and sent to the Venice Commission. After receiving the opinion from the Venice Commission, the Parliament sent the draft law back to the second hearing in order to consider the recommendations of the Venice Commission and introduce relevant amendments
 - ✗ According to the Venice Commission, in the light of the public statements, there is a risk that once adopted, it will be applied to the opposition
 - ✗ Venice Commission underlines that the measures defined by the draft law may lead to violations of fundamental rights protected under the ECHR and that the draft law “gives the Government too much influence over the process”
 - ✗ Venice Commission underlines the vagueness of certain provisions;
 - ✗ According to the Venice Commission, the prohibition of financing of political parties, election campaigns, other political campaigning and/or the holding of rallies or demonstrations "with political demands" for persons registered as “oligarchs”, could interfere with Articles 10 and 11 of ECHR
 - ✗ Venice Commission gives preference to the systemic approach and underlines that the “personal approach”, which is applied to the presented draft law, needs strong guarantees to prevent the violation of several human rights and the rule of law
 - ✗ Given the risks identified above, the Venice Commission considers that the "personal approach" taken in the draft law, which defines and stigmatizes persons on the basis of unclear criteria, carries a high risk that will lead to human rights violations without achieving the aims pursued
 - ✗ Recommendations of the Venice Commission refer to:
 - Clarification of key provisions and procedures, such as "being involved in political life" and "exerting significant influence on mass media";
 - Elaboration of effective mechanisms for procedural safeguards and effective remedies;
 - Ensuring the proportionality of certain consequences of designation as an "oligarch":
 - ✗ The UNM presented the draft law, which was neither debated nor sent to the Venice Commission
 - ✗ NGOs and part of the opposition are against passing the Law on De-oligarchization, as they believe that it will only be applied to the opposition supporters and critical media. Furthermore, according to the COSs and opposition, there is no need of the adoption of the law and this goal can be achieved by systemic approach and implementation of other priorities

CHALLENGES

- ! According to the Georgian Dream the law on de-oligarchization will be applied only to the supporters of critical media and opposition parties but will not be applied to Bidzina Ivanishvili, as stated by GD
- ! Venice Commission identified substantial deficiencies in the draft law. Commission recommends applying systemic approach instead of a personal approach as foreseen by the existing draft law
- ! The law may be adopted without considering the opinion;
- ! Absence of the political will on the initial approach to implement measures aimed at de-oligarchization without adopting the law

MOSTLY FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“STRENGTHEN THE FIGHT AGAINST ORGANIZED CRIME BASED ON DETAILED THREAT ASSESSMENTS, NOTABLY BY ENSURING RIGOROUS INVESTIGATIONS, PROSECUTIONS AND A CREDIBLE TRACK RECORD OF PROSECUTIONS AND CONVICTIONS; GUARANTEE ACCOUNTABILITY AND OVERSIGHT OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES”

PRIORITY N6:
FIGHT AGAINST
ORGANIZED CRIME

EXPECTATIONS

- » Strengthen the fight against organized crime
- » Guarantee accountability and oversight of the law enforcement agencies

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✓ The parliamentary working group conducted an overview and assessment of the situation regarding the fight against organized crime and held 8 closed meetings
- ✓ As a result of the working group meeting, the Defence and Security Committee adopted the document containing 76 specific steps that need to be taken and responsible bodies and timelines for their fulfillment have been determined
- ✓ The document covers organized criminal groups, trafficking and money laundering, cyber and drug crimes, financing of terrorism, etc.
- ✓ Parliament adopted the Action Plan for combating organized crime 2022-2024
- ✗ The working group didn't discuss the amendments to the Parliament's rules of procedure on the strengthening of the accountability and oversight of the law enforcement agencies, with the argument that the work has been done under the second

CHALLENGES

- ! The working group didn't discuss the issue of accountability and oversight of the law enforcement agencies
- ! Two CSOs suspended their participation in the working process due to the discriminatory decision against ISFED
- ! Recommendations regarding the trust group at the Defence and Security Committee presented by the NGOs (DRI) have not been taken into account
- ! The protocols of the working group meetings are not publicly accessible
- ! ! Guaranteeing accountability and oversight of the law enforcement agencies remains an open issue

TO BE FULFILLED

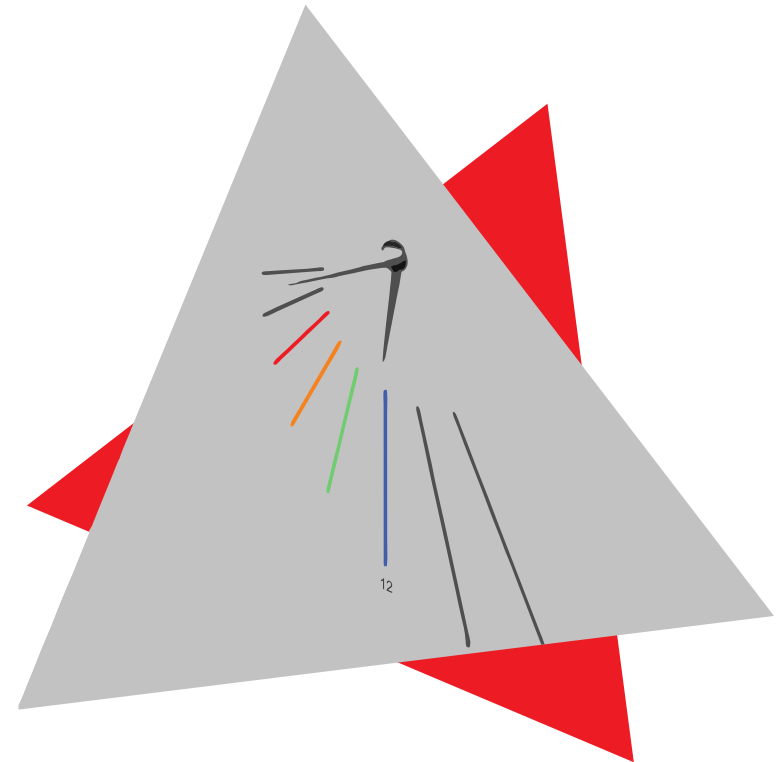

EU REQUESTS:

“TO UNDERTAKE STRONGER EFFORTS TO GUARANTEE A FREE, PROFESSIONAL AND INDEPENDENT MEDIA ENVIRONMENT, NOTABLY BY ENSURING THAT CRIMINAL PROCEDURES BROUGHT AGAINST MEDIA OWNERS FULFIL THE HIGHEST LEGAL STANDARDS, AND BY LAUNCHING IMPARTIAL, EFFECTIVE AND TIMELY INVESTIGATIONS IN CASES OF THREATS AGAINST SAFETY OF JOURNALISTS AND OTHER MEDIA PROFESSIONALS”

- » Release/pardon Nika Gvaramia, founder of Mtavari TV
- » Criminal prosecution of the perpetrators of the violence against journalists on July 5, 2021
- » Investigation on illegal wiretapping against media representatives and criminal prosecution of the respective persons
- » Harmonization of Georgian media law with the EU Directive on Audiovisual Media Services based on broad consensus
- » Abstaining from initiation and/or adoption of legislation impeding media freedom

STATE OF PLAY:

- ⌚ Georgian Dream pledges that the Parliament, in cooperation with the Prosecutor's Office and the Interior Ministry, will ensure access to information about the current investigations in the cases of public interest
- ✗ Parliament adopted deficient amendments to the law on Broadcasting motivated by the need to harmonies the legislation with the EU's Audiovisual Media services directive
- ✗ None of the issues related to media freedom has been addressed
- ✗ The law was criticized by the civil society on some fundamental issues, as being damaging to the freedom of media and inconsistent with the EU Directive

According to the amendments:

- (1) Decisions of the National Communication Commission of Georgia will be immediately executed;
- (2) The “Right of reply” goes beyond the provisions of the EU Directive, and the oversight function on this matter will be carried out by the commission;
- (3) Provisions regulating the hate speech, especially its definition and regulation mechanism, contain serious risks to media freedom

- ✗ Chairman of the Parliament issued a new code of conduct introducing new accreditation rules for representatives of media outlets, which violates and impedes the fulfilment of official duties of the media in the Parliament
- ✗ Parliamentary majority supported the Foreign Influence Law, which is incompatible with EU values and standards and contradicts at least 2 from 12 recommendations of the EU Commission. After the massive protests the draft law was retracted
- ✗ Implementation of the Law would cause suspension of activities of the independent media

CHALLENGES

- ! Nika Gvaramia remains imprisoned
- ! Guilty verdict on a criminal case against the founder of TV Pirveli remains in force according to the decision of the appeal court
- ! Trial against David Kezerashvili continues – the risk for TV Formula to lose its editorial independence still exists
- ! Organizers of the July 5 pogroms against the journalists are not punished
- ! Case of illegitimate wiretapping of journalists is not investigated, organizers are neither identified nor punished
- ! CSOs claim that GD's interpretation of the EU's AVMSD is biased and the adopted law is deficient and goes beyond the provisions the EU Directive to the disadvantage of the media
- ! Initiation, discussion and adoption of the legislation impeding activities of media will deteriorate the media environment in Georgia

EU REQUESTS:

“MOVE SWIFTLY TO STRENGTHEN THE PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS OF VULNERABLE GROUPS, INCLUDING BY BRINGING PERPETRATORS AND INSTIGATORS OF VIOLENCE TO JUSTICE MORE EFFECTIVELY”

EXPECTATIONS

- » Investigate July 5, 2021 violence and bring perpetrators and organizers to justice
- » Enhance the protection of vulnerable groups
- » Adopt the National Human Rights strategy and action plan
- » Conduct informative and educational campaigns aimed at reducing homophobia and xenophobia
- » Establish special mechanisms to increase the political representation and participation of ethnic minorities
- » Create democratic, inclusive and regular consultative mechanisms with the Government and Parliament of Georgia, involving independent civil society actors from the ethnic minority communities

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✗ Organizers of the July 5 violence have not been punished
- ✓ Government of Georgia elaborated and the Parliament approved the “National Strategy for Human Rights protection 2022-2030.” Some opposition parties supported the document
- ⌚ The work has been launched in order to elaborate the National Action Plan for Human Rights Protection
- ✗ The issue of the protection of the LGBTIQ community was excluded from the Human Rights Strategy. The CSOs have not been involved in the process of elaboration of the strategy. Recommendations submitted later by the CSOs, including concerning the chapter on LGBTIQ, have not been taken into account
- ⌚ Government claims that it continues to implement the policies aimed at strengthening ethnic minorities, including through supporting ethnic minorities to study the Georgian language, access education at all levels, enrol in the internships in state institutions and have access to information in their mother language
- ⌚ Persons convicted for violence against journalists and cameramen, including Lexo Lashkarava have been found guilty by the decision of the appeal court as well, but no single person from the organizers have been punished
- ✗ According to the Ministry of Interior, 31 persons are prosecuted for the July 5 case, but none of them are accused of organizing the violence
- ! After the failed attempt of the adoption of the law “On Transparency of Foreign Influence” the leaders of the GD started rhetoric against the LGBTIQ community. Irakli Kobakhidze described the “LBGT propaganda” conducted by the CSOs as “anti-state activities”. Prime Minister labelled the pride march as a provocative event

- ! Organizers and perpetrators of the July 5 violence remain unpunished
- ! Protection of the rights of the LGBTQI+ groups disappeared from the agenda and it has been excluded from the Human Rights Strategy 2022-2030. This fact was criticized by community members, CSOs and international partners
- ! The ruling party enhanced the rhetoric against the LGBTQI+ community

MOSTLY FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“NOTABLY CONSOLIDATE EFFORTS TO ENHANCE GENDER EQUALITY AND FIGHT VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN”

PRIORITY N9:
GENDER EQUALITY AND VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

EXPECTATIONS

- » Adopt new action plan on Gender-based violence and domestic violence
- » Change the definition of rape in line with the Istanbul Convention
- » Remove “the victim status” as a precondition for accessing the state services

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✓ The Parliament adopted changes to the gender equality laws with the multi-party support
- ✓ Every draft law will be required to have the gender impact assessment
- ✓ According to the changes, the state will ensure gender equality at all levels – not only de jure but also de facto;
- ✓ The Government adopted the decree on the compensation for the victims of domestic violence
- ✓ In order to access state services, “the victim status” is no longer required as a precondition
- ✓ Human rights committee of the Parliament adopted the state concept for economic empowerment of women
- ✓ Parliament conducted a thematic inquiry, chaired by the opposition MP, into women's access to financial resources
- ⌚ In order to harmonize the definition of rape with Istanbul Convention, thematic research is underway in the Parliament, which should be finished by 27 April 2023
- ✓ The Parliament extended for one additional term (till 2032) the applicability of the gender quota
- ✓ These changes are supported by the opposition parties and the CSOs

CHALLENGES

- ! Definition of rape has not been changed yet per Istanbul Convention
- ! The Concept of gender equality narrowed the definition of gender and doesn't cover the protection of LGBTIQ community rights
- ! The concept of economic empowerment of women narrowed the definition of gender and did not cover the protection of LGBTQI+ community rights

TO BE FULFILLED

PRIORITY N10:
INVOLVEMENT OF THE CSOS

EU REQUESTS:

“ENSURE THE INVOLVEMENT OF CIVIL SOCIETY IN DECISION-MAKING PROCESSES AT ALL LEVELS”

EXPECTATIONS

- » Involve civil society in the implementation of 12 priorities
- » Involve civil society in the decision-making process at the executive, parliamentary and local levels
- » Involve NGOs in the process of creating national policies, strategic documents and action plans
- » Refrain from initiation, discussion and/or adoption of the legislation impeding activities of civil society and independent media

STATE OF PLAY:

- ⌚ GD pledged to involve NGOs in implementing 12 priorities and to create the mechanisms for NGOs' effective participation
- ⌚ NGOs were invited to the parliamentary working groups, albeit with limited representation
- ✗ GD blocked ISFED from participating in the election working group
- ⌚ Under the coordination of the Chairman of the Parliament sporadic meetings with the representatives of civil society have been conducted, but the actual involvement of civil society organizations was not ensured;
- ✗ Parliamentary majority supported the draft law “On the Transparency of Foreign Influence,” which is incompatible with EU values and standards and contradicts at least 2 of the 12 recommendations of the EU Commission. After the massive protests, the draft law was retracted
- ✗ Implementation of the law could cause termination of the activities of CSOs
- ✗ As a result of initiation and the first hearing of legislation impeding activities of CSOs, polarization between the Government and civil society has been deepened and hinders the participation of CSOs in the process of implementation of 12 priorities
- ✗ Due to the Government's commitment to the principles of so-called “foreign agent” law, the COSs (Institute for Development of Freedom of Information IDFI, Transparency International Georgia TI, Civil Society Institute and Georgian Young Lawyers Association GYLA) suspended their membership in the Open Governance Permanent Parliamentary Council advisory group
- ✗ Despite the retraction of the law GD continued attacks on the civil society sector and intensified smear campaign. The leaders of GD are labelling the civil society organizations as agents of foreign influence and are blaming them for undermining the European integration process, provocative actions, destructive activities and wanting to drag Georgia into the war with Russia. They are also questioning their finances and faithfulness to the state's interests

- ! According to the CSOs, most of their recommendations on judiciary reform, anti-corruption measures, democratic oversight, media and vulnerable groups remain unaddressed
- ! Blocking ISFED from the working group on the reform of the electoral code
- ! GD continues a discrediting campaign against the CSOs
- ! Initiation, discussion and adoption of legislation impeding activities of the CSOs will significantly deteriorate the conditions for civil society and will hamper their activities, as well as involvement in the decision-making process
- ! Recommendations of the CSOs on the Ombudsperson were ignored

FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“ADOPT LEGISLATION SO THAT GEORGIAN COURTS PROACTIVELY TAKE INTO ACCOUNT EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS JUDGMENTS IN THEIR DELIBERATIONS”

PRIORITY N11:

- ✓ Special service will be created inside the Georgian courts that will provide analysis of the ECHR decision to the judges
- ✓ CSOs were involved in the working group preparing the legislation
- ✓ Changes were adopted with the support of the opposition parties

CHALLENGES

- ! Possible difficulties in the implementation and enforcement of the law

PARTIALLY FULFILLED

EU REQUESTS:

“ENSURE THAT AN INDEPENDENT PERSON IS GIVEN PREFERENCE IN THE PROCESS OF NOMINATING A NEW PUBLIC DEFENDER (OMBUDSPERSON) AND THAT THIS PROCESS IS CONDUCTED IN A TRANSPARENT MANNER; ENSURE THE OFFICE'S EFFECTIVE INSTITUTIONAL INDEPENDENCE”

PRIORITY N12:
INDEPENDENT OMBUDSPERSON

EXPECTATIONS

- » Parliament to appoint new Public Defender with multi-party consensus and in cooperation with the CSOs
- » Transparency of the selection process
- » Ensure the independence of the new Ombudsperson

STATE OF PLAY:

- ✗ GD created an assessment group comprising of nine members of civil society and academia to evaluate each applicant for the Public Defender

Independent CSOs presented three candidates – Giorgi Burjanadze, Ana Abashidze and Nazi Janezashvili (who later withdrew), who obtained the highest evaluations from the assessment group and were supported publicly by the opposition. Public hearings of the candidates were held

GD conducted a negative campaign against the candidates presented by the CSOs. Despite the transparent process, GD didn't support any of these candidates and the whole process failed
